

So, you think you might want to join the Upward Bound Camp Missions Team...

Self Assessment for Applicants:

Want the privilege of having fun and receiving valuable training without costing you any money?

Want to experience God in the beauty of nature, and the company of other believers?

Want to receive the special blessings that can only come from serving?

Want to make a difference in the life of others and worship God with the work of your hands?

Willing to put someone else's needs ahead of my own for six days, take a two day break, and then do it again?

Willing to connect with both fellow team members, and campers celebrating life together?

Willing to be part of a team, supporting one another through prayer, worship and God's Word?

Willing to be casual, get dirty, have fun and try new things?

Willing to let myself be tested by challenges so that God's strength can shine through?

Willing to help youth and adults with physical and cognitive disabilities by leading recreation activities and assisting with daily care needs including toileting, diapering and showering?

Willing to be drug, alcohol, and tobacco free while in service at camp?

Willing to take good care of myself (eating, sleeping, resting, and making wise choices)?

Willing to give up comforts of home and privacy, & sleep on a bunk in a room with 8 other people for at least 1 night per week?

Willing to sleep outside under the stars in a simple shelter for one night during the overnight camp out?

Willing to rise at 7am and go all day until 10pm with only a couple hours break in between?

Willing to stretch farther physically, emotionally and spiritually than possibly ever before to make this experience possible for persons with disabilities who look forward to this more than Disneyland?

Willing to stay onsite (barring emergency) for at least ten days at a stretch, without seeing a Starbucks or McDonalds?

Upward Bound Camp will send out a copy following your interview.

Please feel free to use this space to make any comments or questions regarding the camp service experience.
